THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

“By means of touch and the sharing of a meal, the risen Jesus establishes direct contact with his disciples. He invites them in this way to recognize that he is not a ghost and above all to verify that the risen body in which he appears to them is the same body that had been tortured and crucified, for it still bears the traces of his passion. Yet at the same time this authentic, real body possesses the new properties of a glorious body: not limited by space and time but able to be present how and when he wills; for Christ’s humanity can no longer be confined to earth, and belongs henceforth only to the Father’s divine realm. For this reason too the risen Jesus enjoys the sovereign freedom of appearing as he wishes: in the guise of a gardener or in other forms familiar to his disciples, precisely to awaken their faith.” (CCC 645)

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

Today we celebrate the Third Sunday of Easter. In today's gospel, Jesus appears to the disciples on the road to Emmaus, consoling them and encouraging them to embrace the reality of the Resurrection. As we know, they realized who Jesus was in the breaking of the bread; may we pray that we do the same in today's Holy Mass! At 11:00AM Mass, Cathedral Choir sings the Gregorian introit, offertory, and communion antiphons of the day. You will notice that in Gregorian chant, the Church takes the Alleluia very seriously! There is always an Alleluia at the end of every phrase, and at the end of the antiphon, a triple Alleluia. In case you needed more reminders to rejoice this Easter season... This week, the communion antiphon is a perfect example of the traditional use of the communion antiphon in the Roman Rite—to reinforce a verse from the Gospel. One is fed by the Word of God, recalling the Gospel, while the Word Incarnate is received in Holy Communion. This shows how important it is that the liturgy of the Church use the antiphon texts given in the liturgical books; it makes our celebration of the Holy Eucharist much more meaningful! At the other Masses, the entrance and communion antiphons are presented in English chant settings by Adam Bartlett. At 11AM, the Cathedral Choir Hans Leo Hassler's Missa Secunda. One of the shortest polyphonic Masses in the repertoire, it is frequently performed in the liturgy because its length is not much longer than a congregational Gregorian chant Mass. Therefore, it inserts well into the Ordinary Form of the Roman Rite. Hassler was an important and cosmopolitan composer. This work moves rapidly between themes, especially in the Gloria, where text declamation is clear, succinct, and exciting. It is a perfect Mass for Eastertide!
