THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Mass readings are found on page 24 in Sunday's Word.

“John the Baptist is ‘more than a prophet.’ In him, the Holy Spirit concludes his speaking through the prophets. John completes the cycle of prophets begun by Elijah. He proclaims the imminence of the consolation of Israel; he is the ‘voice’ of the Consoler who is coming. As the Spirit of truth will also do, John ‘came to bear witness to the light.’ In John’s sight the Spirit thus brings to completion the careful search of the prophets and fulfills the longing of the angels. ‘He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptizes with the Holy Spirit. And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God...Behold, the Lamb of God!’” (CCC, 719)

HARK, A THRILLING VOICE IS SOUNDING

MERTON

1 Hark! a thrill-ing voice is sound-ing: "Christ is nigh," it seems to say;
 2 Wak-ened by the sol-emn warn-ing, from earth's bond-age let us rise;
 3 Lo! the Lamb, so long ex-pect-ed, comes with par-don down from heaven;
 4 so when next he comes with glo-ry, and the world is wrapped in fear,
 5 Hon-or, glo-ry, might, and bless-ing to the Fa-ther and the Son,

1 "Cast a-way the works of dark-ness, O ye chil-dren of the day."
 2 Christ, our sun, all sloth dis-pel-ling, shines up-on the morn-ing skies.
 3 let us haste, with tears of sor-row, one and all to be for-given;
 4 may he with his mer-cy shield us, and with words of love draw near.
 5 with the ev-er-last-ing Spi-rit while un-end-ing a-ges run.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

Today we continue our observance of the season of Advent. This brief penitential season focuses on two goals: preparing us for the Second Coming of our Lord, and preparing us for the celebration of his birth at Christmas. The entrance antiphon, psalm, and gospel acclamation all point toward the heavenly Jerusalem that is to come for those who persevere. The offertory is one of the best pairings of hymn and tune of the 18th Century. Hark, a thrilling voice is sounding (MERTON) has a majestic feel that truly suits this first half of the Advent season, with its focus on the Second Coming of Christ. The communion at all Masses is another “call to action” (and prayer). The antiphons of today’s Mass encourage us to wake ourselves and be vigilant for Christ’s coming. Fr. Columba Kelly, OSB, longtime chantmaster of St. Meinrad Archabbey (the mother abbey of Swiss Benedictines in this country), provides the communion antiphon at 5PM & 8:30AM, while the choral offertory and communion at 11AM consist of the authentic Gregorian antiphons for this Sunday. We sing Mass XVII at all weekend Masses. This is the Gregorian chant Mass traditionally appointed to the Sundays of Advent and Lent. Compared to the more somber Mass XVIII (with which you are familiar as our “simple” Latin setting at the Cathedral), Mass XVII has a more hopeful and joyfully lyric quality. In this, the Church clearly shows that the chant is the music of rejoicing for God’s people, contrary to mistaken notions that chant is penitential. It also highlights the fact that Sundays in penitential seasons are still days of feasting and rejoicing, even if they are tempered by the general tone of the season. St. John the Baptist looms large in the Second Sunday of Advent in all three years of the lectionary cycle, and so the closing hymn is sung in his honor. We also continue the singing of the seasonal Marian antiphon (in this case, Alma Redemptoris Mater) at all Masses. Each portion of the liturgical year has its own antiphon; this one serves the period from the First Sunday of Advent until February 2, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. One notices immediately that there is a clear emphasis on the unity of God’s creation of the natural world (natura mirante/ all creation wondering) and that of the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ. This is a common theme in various texts of this time of the year (e.g., O Magnum mysterium at Christmastide) that reminds us that the Church’s liturgical year does not exist in isolation, but highlights the natural cycle of the Earth, helping us to see all God’s creation in its beautiful unity.

*The Music Fund of the Cathedral of St. Paul is funded solely by the generosity of benefactors and provides the only funds for growing and maintaining our musical offerings to the parish, diocese, and community. Any new music for the choir library, recital or concert fees, or necessary items are purchased from this account. For example, a donation toward the purchase of a piece of choral music is a perfect way to memorialize a loved one or honor a friend. Many of the items in our choir library are labeled with these inscriptions; the musicians at St. Paul remember these donors and dedicatees in our weekly prayers. Contributions are also needed to offset soloist fees and help make possible an eventual concert series.
