in the glo - ry of God the Fa - ther. A - men.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Mass readings are found on page 41 in Sunday's Word.

“Christ’s whole earthly life—his words and deeds, his silences and sufferings, indeed his manner of being and speaking—is Revelation of the Father. Jesus can say: ‘Whoever has seen me has seen the Father’, and the Father can say: “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!’ Because our Lord became man in order to do his Father’s will, even the least characteristics of his mysteries manifest ‘God’s love...among us.’” (CCC, 516)

HOLY COMMUNION

We invite all Catholics who are properly disposed (i.e., in the state of grace and having fasted for one hour before communion) to come forward in the usual way to receive Holy Communion.

All others, including our non-Catholic guests, may remain in their pews and join us in prayer. Alternatively, to participate in the communion procession and receive a blessing, come forward in the line and cross your arms over your chest as you approach the minister. Thank you.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

As we continue through Ordinary Time, that is the “ordered time” where the Church invites us to contemplate the miracles and events of the life of Jesus Christ, we continue to get to know the repertoire the Second Vatican Council asked Cathedral churches to retain. One of the key quotes in the council’s Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy (Sacrosanctum Concilium) deals with the role of Cathedral churches such as ours in the fostering of great music. “The treasury of sacred music is to be preserved and fostered with great care. Choirs must be diligently promoted, especially in cathedral churches; but bishops and other pastors of souls must be at pains to ensure that, whenever the sacred action is to be celebrated with song, the whole body of the faithful may be able to contribute that active participation which is rightly theirs, as laid down in Art. 28 and 30.” (SC 114) It is always telling that this directive is actually the first explicit request in the document’s section on sacred music. Besides its preeminence in the history of Catholic liturgical music, this request of the Council is the primary reason for the founding and continuance of the Cathedral’s Children’s Schola Cantorum. This group of singers from grades 3-8 learns the basics of Gregorian chant and modern notation, as well as healthy, pleasing singing appropriate to the leadership of liturgical music in our Cathedral. It is this great chant tradition, and also the larger “treasury of sacred music”, that the group exists to explore. In fact this centrality of Gregorian chant is also a request of the Council, following but one item after the quotation above. It is clear, as well, that Catholic institutions (not secular organizations nor the concert halls) are responsible for ensuring the preeminence of chant in our worship. Fortunately, the monophonic nature of the chant and the purity of children’s voices are a heavenly pairing. We hope you enjoy the fruits of their labors at the 11:00AM Mass today; please consider signing your child up for the group once they approach third grade. Their help is needed and, as the council document points out, is of priceless value to the Church. This investment you make will be repaid many times over! Please contact the Director of Music (Ludwick@stpaulsbhm.org or 205.251.1279x107) for more information. The postcommunion Marian antiphon at all Masses, Alma Redemptoris Mater, is sung (every day in Compline, but also devotionally as we do today at Mass) until February 2, so we are saying “farewell” to this venerable antiphon this weekend until next Advent. If you notice the translation on the preceding page, it focuses on the Incarnation, which is fitting as we are still so close to the Nativity of our Lord. After February 3 and until Easter, the Ave Regina Caelorum is sung, an antiphon beautiful in melody and text, but also more austere as befits the Lenten season.
