

THE CATHEDRAL OF SAINT PAUL

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

ASH WEDNESDAY

FEBRUARY 14, 2018

THE MOST REV. ROBERT J. BAKER, STD, CELEBRANT (12:10PM)

Welcome to the Cathedral of Saint Paul. The order of Mass can be found on page 3 in the Sunday's Word booklets found in the pew racks. Please follow this order of worship for today's music.

On Ash Wednesday, a universal day of fast, ashes are distributed. The faithful, by receiving ashes, enter upon the season appointed for spiritual purification. This sign, biblical in origin and preserved among the customs of the Church until our own day, expresses the human condition as affected by sin. In this sign we outwardly profess our guilt before God and thereby, prompted by the hope that the Lord is kind and compassionate, patient and abounding in mercy, express our desire for inward conversion. This sign is also the beginning of the journey of conversion that will reach its goal in the celebration of the sacrament of reconciliation during the days leading to Easter. - Ceremonial of Bishops

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Misereris omnium

CF. WISDOM 11:24, 25, 27

Miseréris ómnium, Dómine, et nihil odísti eórum quæ fecísti, dissímulans peccáta hóminum propter pæniténtiam et parcens illis: quia tu es Dóminus, Deus noster.

℣. Miserere mei, Deus, miserere mei: quóniam in te confidit ánima mea.

You are merciful to all, O Lord, and despise nothing that you have made. You overlook people's sins, to bring them to repentance, and you spare them, for you are the Lord our God.

℣. Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for my soul confides in you.

On this day, the Penitential Act is replaced (albeit later in the Mass) with the Imposition and Distribution of Ashes. Mass begins with the Collect, or opening prayer.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Today's Mass readings are found on page 47 in Sunday's Word.

HOLY COMMUNION

We invite all Catholics who are properly disposed (i.e., in the state of grace and having fasted for one hour before communion) to come forward in the usual way to receive Holy Communion.

All others, including our non-Catholic guests, may remain in their pews and join us in prayer. Alternatively, to participate in the communion procession and receive a blessing, come forward in the line and cross your arms over your chest as you approach the minister. Thank you.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON Qui meditabitur

PSALM 1:2-3

He who ponders the Law of the Lord day and night will yield fruit in due season.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

Today, we begin our solemn observance of the season of Lent. The Ash Wednesday liturgy is much like that of Good Friday: stark and arresting in its directness. While the Sundays of Lent generally focus on the goodness of God rather than our personal penitence, it is clear from even one glance at today's liturgy that the theme is "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." The texts for the entire Mass until communion are very personal and focused on conversion. At communion we finally hear that one who "ponders the Lord...will yield fruit in due season"—a reminder of the purpose of mortification and sacrifice. A further sign that this is the season of penitence is the absence of instrumental music. An ancient tradition in the Church, this "fasting" from instruments during the season of Lent (except for accompanimental purposes) is a way to focus our minds and hearts during the liturgy. Psalm 51 is unquestionably associated with Ash Wednesday, and today at 5:30 we hear a setting of it by Calvert Shenk, the former organist and choirmaster of this very Cathedral church. Contemporary in harmonic language but traditional in idiom, we are happy to remember Cal with the performance of his pieces. Beautiful polyphony or not, the most appropriate music for this day is unquestionably chant. The introit at both Masses (and the offertory at 5:30pm) is the authentic Gregorian antiphon, and the antiphons and responsory during the imposition of ashes are all contemporary compositions modeled on the Gregorian originals. These "neo-Gregorian" are adaptations share the same spirituality (and even chant mode and melody) as the originals while presenting a vernacular text that is more immediately accessible. This movement of chant composition has experienced a wonderful springtime in the past few years. We hope today's Mass will be a fitting and holy beginning to your observance of the season of Lent.

We are thankful today for the contributions of the Cathedral Choir (5:30PM) and combined Men's and Ladies' Scholae (12:10PM) as they provide musical leadership for our Masses.
