THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL PROMISES

Dear brethren, through the Paschal Mystery we have been buried with Christ in Baptism, so that we may walk with him in newness of life. And so, now that our Lenten observance is concluded, let us renew the promises of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and his works and promised to serve God in the holy Catholic Church. And so I ask you:

℣. Do you renounce sin, so as to live in the freedom of the children of God?
℟. I do.
℣. Do you renounce the lure of evil, so that sin may have no mastery over you?
℟. I do.
℣. Do you renounce Satan, the author and prince of sin?
℟. I do.
℣. Do you believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth?
℟. I do.
℣. Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, suffered death and was buried, rose again from the dead and is seated at the right hand of the Father?
℟. I do.
℣. Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting?
℟. I do.

ABOUT TODAY'S LITURGY

The tomb lies empty—Christ is risen! Today's entrance antiphon reminds us of this truth. Then, we hear the first Alleluia we have heard in over forty days. In Masses such as today's, celebrated in the diocese's Cathedral church, in a diverse city, and on a day when many visitors are present, the Church has taught in the 20th and 21st Century that Gregorian chant is the one repertoire we can all claim as Catholics (cf. Sacrosanctum Concilium, #116). In the words of Pope Paul VI, chant helps "...make it easier for Christians to achieve unity and spiritual harmony with their brothers and with the living tradition of the past." (Voluntati Obsequens) At the same time, Sacrosanctum Concilium and the entire magisterium of the past century remind us that Cathedral churches have a specific mission to preserve and foster choirs and the "treasury of sacred music" (SC, #114). Because of this, on important days in the liturgical year, we offer choral settings of the Mass ordinary to glorify God in a special way, thanking him for his many blessings. This Easter at 11:00AM Mass, we present the Kyrie and Gloria of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's Missa Brevis in D, KV 194. The Missa Brevis in D was composed when Mozart was all of 18 years old, and is typical of the concerted Masses that would have been used week-to-week at the Cathedral in Salzburg. What makes this a "missa brevis" in Viennese style is that the Gloria (and Credo, which is not sung today) is set as one movement, rather than being divided into smaller parts (for soloists, smaller groups, etc.) While there are solos, they are clearly part of the whole. In addition, there is no instrumental introduction to the movements. The Kyrie is in sonata form, so that the first and last statements of the Kyrie are nearly identical. The Gloria is cast in a somewhat looser sonata form, as well, which foreshadows what would be de rigueur for Masses later in the Classical period. At communion, we hear a setting of the Easter sequence sung to polyphony by the Mexican (pre-)Baroque composer Francisco Lopez Capillas. The first native-born organist-choirmaster of the Mexico City Cathedral, Lopez Capillas was the first church composer of the New World to achieve fame both in Mexico and Spain. His works survive in manuscripts and choirbooks in both locations. A pragmatic composer, his works are neither large in scale nor particularly daring; however, as one hears from this piece, they are charming and captivating—and totally fitting for this most ebullient of liturgical days. Alleluia refrains dialogue with verses which set the text of the sequence; the final verse utilizes the full choir to proclaim, "We know that Christ has truly risen from the dead. Have mercy upon us, Thou triumphant King." Alleluia, Christ is risen!
