THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Readings for the 5:00pm and 8:30am Masses are found in Sunday's Word; 11:00am Mass readings are printed below.

FIRST READING

SIRACH 15:1-6

He who fears the LORD will do this; he who is practiced in the law will come to wisdom. Motherlike she will meet him, like a young bride she will embrace him, Nourish him with the bread of understanding, and give him the water of learning to drink. He will lean upon her and not fall, he will trust in her and not be put to shame. She will exalt him above his fellows; and in the midst of the assembly she will open his mouth and fill him with the spirit of wisdom and understanding, and clothe him with the robe of glory. Joy and gladness he will find, an everlasting name he will inherit.

℣. The word of the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13CD-14

If

I will praise your name for- ev- er, my king and my God.

SECOND READING

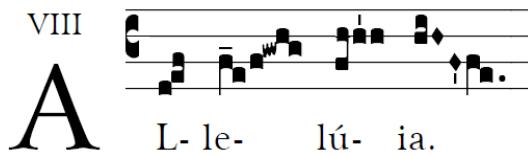

COLOSSIANS 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

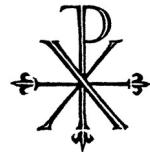

℣. The word of the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 13:47-52

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with your spirit.

℣. A ✕ reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

℟. Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to the crowds: "The Kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the Kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

℣. The Gospel of the Lord.

℟. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMUNION (11:00AM)

LIKE AS THE HART

HERBERT HOWELLS

Like as the hart desireth the waterbrooks, so longeth my soul after thee, O God. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God. When shall I come to appear before the presence of God? My tears have been my meat day and night, while they daily say unto me, "Where is now thy God?"

—Psalm 42:1-3
