ANTIPHONS FOR THE WASHING OF FEET

MANDATUM

PETER LATONA

I give you a new commandment, that you love one another, as I have loved you. After the Lord had risen from supper, he poured water into a basin and began to wash the feet of his disciples: he left them this example. The Lord Jesus, after eating supper with his disciples, washed their feet and said to them: Do you know what I, your Lord and Master, have done for you? I have given you an example, that you should do likewise. Lord, are you to wash my feet? Jesus said to him in answer: If I do not wash your feet, you will have no share with me. So he came to Simon Peter and Peter said to him: Lord, are you to wash my feet? Jesus said to him in answer: If I do not wash your feet, you will have no share with me. What I am doing, you do not know now, but later you will come to know. If I, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, how much more should you wash each other's feet? This is how all will know that you are my disciples: if you have love for one another. Jesus said to his disciples: Let faith, hope and charity, these three, remain among you, but the greatest of these is charity. Now faith, hope and charity, these three, remain; but the greatest of these is charity.

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON

UBI CARITAS

PHILIP W.J. STOPFORD

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. [Where there is true love, there is God.] By the love of Christ we have been brought together; let us find in Him our gladness and our pleasure; may we love and revere Him, God the living, and in love respect each other with sincere hearts. Ubi caritas... So when we as one are gathered all together, let us strive to keep our minds free of division; may there be an end to malice, strife, and quarrels, and let Christ our God be dwelling here among us. Ubi caritas... May Your face thus be our vision, bright in glory, Christ our God, with all the blessed saints in heaven: sure delight is pure and faultless, joy unbounded, which endures through countless ages, world without end. Ubi caritas...

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

THE TRANSFER OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT

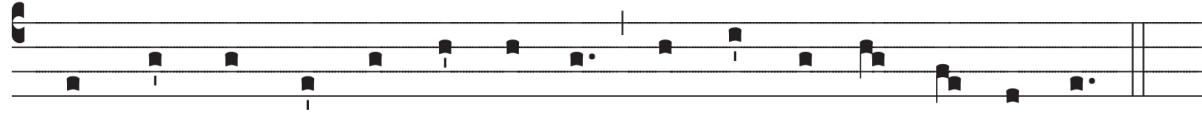

After the postcommunion prayer, the bishop stands before the altar, kneels, and incenses the Blessed Sacrament placed on the altar after communion. He then receives the humeral veil, takes the ciborium holding the Blessed Sacrament, and covers it with the veil. The Blessed Sacrament is then carried through the church in procession, with the bishop, priests, and clergy first, followed by Cathedral Choir, and finally the assembly. During the procession, the hymn “Pange, lingua” is sung. Verses five and six (the Tantum ergo) are sung when the procession reaches the Altar of Repose.
