HOLY COMMUNION

We invite all Catholics who are properly disposed (i.e., in the state of grace and having fasted for one hour before communion) to come forward in the usual way to receive Holy Communion.

All others, including our non-Catholic guests, may remain in their pews and join us in prayer. Alternatively, to participate in the communion procession and receive a blessing, come forward in the line and cross your arms over your chest as you approach the minister. Thank you.

MUSIC REMINDERS

–New members are always desired for Cathedral Choir. If you can read music and commit to weekly rehearsals and Masses September-June, you will love this high-achieving, fulfilling choral experience! Contact the Director of Music (Ludwick@stpaulsbhm.org, 205.251.1279x107) for more information!

–We are working on the finishing touches of the 2023-2024 Downtown Concert Series. This year's debut season was a success; as we seek to build on that, would you consider sponsoring an event? No amount is too small, but if one did not wish to underwrite an entire concert, you might approach friends and fellow parishioners to come together. We are trying to put forth offerings on the Anna Catharine Grace Memorial Pipe Organ, but also concerts for other instruments and choral concerts (which are rather more expensive due to the many people involved with a choir). Please consider this, and contact the Director of Music!

–A teaser: on Sunday, October 8, at 4:00pm, we will welcome Philippe Lefebvre, one of the organiste titulaires (head organists) of Notre-Dame-de-Paris. Widely considered one of the best improvisateurs in the world, M. Lefebvre will be making his Birmingham debut, and will remain in town another day to teach organists in cooperation with our local chapter of the American Guild of Organists. Please mark your calendars!
