GUIDE ME, O THOU GREAT REDEEMER

CWM RHONDDA

Guide me, O Thou great Re-deem-er, pil - grim through this bar - ren land;
O - pen now the cry - stal foun-tain, whence the heal - ing stream doth flow.
When I tread the verge of Jor - dan, bid my anx - ious fears sub - side.

I am weak, but Thou art might - y; hold me with Thy pow'r - ful hand.
Let the fier - y, cloud-y - pil - lar lead me all my jour - ney through.
Death of death, and hell's de - struc - tion, land me safe on Ca - naan's side.

Bread of Heav - en, Bread of Heav - en, feed me now and ev - er - more,
Strong De - liv - erer, strong De - liv - erer, be Thou still my strength and shield,
Songs and prais - es, songs and prais - es I will e - ver give to Thee,

I will e - ver give to Thee.

ENTRANCE ANTIphon (8:30 & 11:00AM) In voluntate tua

ESTHER 13:9-11; PSALM 119

In voluntate tua, Domine universa sunt posita, et non est qui possit resistere voluntati tuae. Tu enim fecisti omnia, caelum et terram, et universa quae caeli ambitu continentur: Dominus universorum tu es.

Within Your will, O LORD, all things are established, and there is none that can resist Your will. For You have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; You are the Lord of all.

All others, including our non-Catholic guests, may remain in their pews and join us in prayer. Alternatively, to participate in the communion procession and receive a blessing, come forward in the line and cross your arms over your chest as you approach the minister. Thank you.

MUSIC REMINDERS

—THIS WEEKEND, we are thrilled to welcome Philippe Lefebvre, Organiste Titulaire of Notre-Dame-de-Paris in concert on Sunday, October 8, 2023, at 4:00pm in the Cathedral. M. Lefebvre has been co-titulaire of Notre-Dame since 1985, and is renowned as one of the world's preeminent organ improvisateurs. His close friend Bertrand Cattiaux, curator of organs at Notre-Dame, helped complete the tonal finishing of the Anna Catharine Grace Memorial Pipe Organ, so we hope M. Lefebvre will meet a "new friend" this weekend. Didier Grassin, president of Noack Organ Company, will be present, too. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity...and it's free! Invite your friends!

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

Before Mass, we hear a miniature set of variations by the American composer John Leavitt. Dr. Leavitt is from the Kansas City area, and now composes full-time, but was working as a church organist in a Lutheran congregation when these pieces were composed as a series. They are imaginative...and the Director of Music has been playing them since his teenage years! As is usually the case here at the Cathedral, we use a Gregorian chant ordinary. It is worth remembering that Sacrosanctum Concilium, Vatican II's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, says that Gregorian chant should be given "first place" in the liturgy (SC #116) and sees cathedrals as custodians of this art and the art of choral singing (SC #114). In the words of Pope St. Paul VI, this congregational chant helps "...make it easier for Christians to achieve unity and spiritual harmony with their brothers and with the living tradition of the past" (Voluntati Obsequens). We are fortunate to sing the hymn text arranged for the 2019 Eucharistic Congress of the Diocese at the offertory, with two verses composed by our rector: it is a hymn we should use more often! The tune is a German tune popular in the late 19th Century. Jean Langlais' "Fête" (literally: "party") was written in celebration of the liberation of Paris during World War II. Langlais, who was blind, was severely restricted in movement during the war and had a number of other personal setbacks. Soon after, though, he was also appointed the organist of St. Clotilde Church in Paris, the church of Cesar Franck and Charles Tournemire. This was one of the most prominent positions in French organ playing, and this piece shows that Langlais was clearly very happy about the appointment. Many quick, repetitious chords are dialogued with a recurring melody played on the trumpet and cornet stops in alternation. Slightly past the midpoint of the piece, a reflective section appears, but is quickly followed by a reinvigorated return of the dialogues and, eventually, a recapitulation of the original them with a new pedal melody and a brilliant coda. The title truly says it all!
