HOLY COMMUNION

We invite all Catholics who are properly disposed (i.e., in the state of grace and having fasted for one hour before communion) to come forward in the usual way to receive Holy Communion.

All others, including our non-Catholic guests, may remain in their pews and join us in prayer. Alternatively, to participate in the communion procession and receive a blessing, come forward in the line and cross your arms over your chest as you approach the minister. Thank you.

CHACONNE IN G

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

You may remember that, in past weeks, it was mentioned that the Easter season's antiphons are a veritable fountain of Alleluias; each phrase ends with this sign of rejoicing, and introits in particular often end with a triple Alleluia (which we first heard before the gospel at the Easter Vigil weeks ago). The Gregorian Alleluia before the Gospel has a jubilus, which extends the last syllable of the word with many notes decorating the text. Today's introit, Vocem iucunditatis, shapes its melody to match the text. As we lift up a "voice of joy", the chant ascends and remains "elevated" until the end of the last alleluia. While a tasteful hymn here might be more expected by many Catholics in this country, this introit, rich in meaning, symbolism, and Biblical imagery, is an even more fitting way to begin Mass. It is the tradition of the Church, but is also the "first option" enshrined in Musicam Sacram, the Vatican's postconciliar instruction on sacred music, and the USCCB's advisory documents. We are in the Marian month of May, when we practice a special devotion to Mary, the Mother of God. A Marian hymn closes every Mass this month, and at 11am, we enjoy a choral setting of the Regina caeli by the Spanish polyphonist Cristóbal de Morales. It is ingeniously formed by two canons (exact imitation), one (quoting the melody of the chant) in the ladies' voices, and another freely composed, more florid one in the men's voices. Morales was the first Spanish composer to be internationally famous, and this ingenious piece shows a little of the reason why!

MUSIC REMINDERS

- Interested in what is coming up next? Visit the Orders of Worship and Music List page, conveniently located under the “Sacred Music” tab of the parish website, www.stpaulsbhm.org.
- Thank you for all who patronized this year’s Downtown Concert Series (<https://stpaulsbhm.org/concerts>), which was a tremendous success. This coming year will be a full one for our music apostolate, as we continue the Series and also host the 2026 Conference of Roman Catholic Cathedral Musicians yearly conference from January 5-8, 2026. This is a tremendous honor for our Cathedral parish, and an opportunity to show all the good that happens here in music and liturgy.
- As we plan the 2025-2026 Downtown Concert Series, we encourage parishioners and benefactors to consider sponsoring an event! No amount is too small, but if one did not wish to underwrite an entire concert, you might approach friends and fellow parishioners to come together. We put forth offerings on the Anna Catharine Grace Memorial Pipe Organ, but also concerts for other instruments and choral concerts (which are rather more expensive due to the many people involved). Please consider this, and contact the Director of Music!
- Speaking of choirs, new members are always desired for Cathedral Choir. If you can read music and commit to weekly rehearsals and Masses September-June, you will love this high-achieving, fulfilling choral experience! Contact the Director of Music (Ludwick@stpaulsbhm.org, 205.251.1279x107) for more information: there is a special need for more men’s voices!
